

AGREE UPON AN ARMISTICE JAPAN AS A PEACEMAKER

Allied Armies Resting Upon Their Guns Before Pekin Awaiting the Outcome of the Mikado's Negotiations With the Celestials.

RELEASE OF THE ENVOYS IS DEMANDED

Armistice Will Extend Only Two Days—Direct Message From Conger Received Today—Hope and Fear in Washington—Threaten a Massacre.

Tokio, Japan, Aug. 16—[Special Cablegram]—Japan has proposed an armistice between the powers and China which has been accepted.

The terms of the powers are that the ministers either be placed under the protection of the allies at the gates of Pekin or that the allies be admitted to Pekin to receive them.

Japan has begun negotiations.
In the meanwhile the allied armies will rest on their guns awaiting the outcome of the negotiations.

Two days have been agreed upon as the extent of the armistice. If the envoys and all foreigners are not then delivered safely, the allies will attack Pekin.

Washington, Aug. 16—[Special Telegram]—Minister Wu presented to the state department this morning an appeal from Li Hung Chang to the powers that the march of the allied forces, be stopped at Tung Chow and that the commanders of the allied forces there be instructed to treat with a special envoy of the Chinese government for the safe delivery of the foreign ministers and other foreigners in Pekin to them at Tung Chow.

Remey's Cable Aug. 15.
Washington, Aug. 16—[Special Telegram]—Remey cables from Taku front Aug. 15 that no authentic news from the front had been heard since August 11. Lieut. Latimore is on Chaffee's staff expressly to furnish him authentic information. The latest reports through Japanese sources are that the allies had occupied Tung Chow on Aug. 12 and would attack Pekin yesterday.

Long Message From Conger.
Washington, Aug. 16—[Special Telegram]—The president arrived at 8:30 o'clock and immediately went into conference with Root and Long over the Chinese situation.

Minister Wu received a long cipher dispatch from Conger at midnight which will take the state department nearly all day to decipher.

British Troops Leave Shanghai.

Shanghai, Aug. 16—[Special Cablegram]—The British troops recently arrived here have been ordered to Wei Hai Wei and Chusan. The foreigners condemned the movement as it leaves millions of property at the mercy of the Chinese.

Report Tung Chow Taken.

Tokio, March 16—[Special Cablegram]—It is reported here that the Japanese troops have captured Tung Chin, ten miles from Pekin. It is believed Tung Chow is meant. The enemy retreated into Pekin the night before.

Direct Answer From Conger

Washington, August 16—[Special Telegram]—The following was posted at the state department this morning:

The department of state received late yesterday afternoon a cipher dispatch from Consul Goodnow dated the same day in which was found an undated message from Conger transmitted from Tien Tsin, August 15. From internal evidence it would appear to have left Pekin on August 8 or 9.

It is very brief, the most interesting statement being, with the exception of seven marines and the baby of Dr. Inglis, all Americans were alive although a number were quite sick.

It is admitted by the department that the dispatch from Conger this morning is a direct answer to the message sent him August 8.

Secretary Adee went to the White House early with dispatches for the President, who will decide what to make public, and a reply to Earl Li will be prepared.

Rumors at Washington

Washington, Aug. 16—[Special Telegram]—The impression here seems to be that the ministers either have been delivered over to the allies or that Pekin is being attacked. The probability favors that the Chinese surrendered to the conditions laid down by the allied commanders and permitted the troops to enter the city under a flag of truce to take away the ministers. There are rumors that the ministers are already on the way to Tien Tsin under an escort of allies.

Answer of McKinley.

Washington, Aug. 16—[Special Telegram]—At a special cabinet meeting this morning, it was decided to answer the appeal of Li Hung Chang to the effect that all negotiations must be made with the generals of the allies on the spot and that no armistice could be agreed to.

THREAT OF CHINESE MINISTER

There Will Be a General Massacre if Allies Press on Pekin.

London, Aug. 16—The Chinese minister in London, Sir Chen Lofeng, is quoted as saying:

"The powers must not press too hard on Pekin. If you defeat the Chinese soldiers it will not be possible to control the soldiery. They may turn and rend the legations."

"I do not believe the legations' food supply will be stopped as long as the powers refrain from attacking Pekin and negotiate for the surrender of the ministers."

"The Russian government," says a telegram from Shanghai to the Daily Express, "has notified Li Hung Chang of its willingness to receive M. de Giers outside the walls of Pekin, thus avoiding the entrance of the Russian force. This independent action it circulated to embarrass the allies seriously."

"Japan demands that General Young Lu shall meet the allies outside the city gates and deliver the ministers and all the native Christians."

LIKELY ALLIES ARE AT PEKIN

Washington Officials Swayed Between Hope and Fear

Washington, August 16—Washington is swinging between hope and fear. A leading official of the state department said this afternoon:

"We are now in the crisis. We feel that the troops of the allies are at or assuredly very close to Pekin—probably immediately outside the walls of the city. We feel that our minister and all our people in Pekin are either being saved today or are being slaughtered."

LETTER REEKS WITH TREASON

Document Captured Written by a Boston Anti-Expansionist.

WORDS OF A TRAITOR

The Filipinos Are Urged to Fry an American Officer For Piracy.

MCKINLEY IS CALLED A PIRATE

Washington, D. C., Aug. 16—Correspondence of a treasonable nature, giving aid and comfort to the Philippine rebels, was made public by the war department today. It was captured by General Funston in one of his raids on the Filipinos and it convicts the anti-imperialists of treason of the worst possible character.

It proves beyond a doubt that Montague R. Levenson of the Anti-Imperialistic league of Boston not only encouraged the Filipinos in their war against the United States but recommended that some American army officer be seized by the Filipinos and tried for piracy. Levenson advises the Filipinos that the president is carrying on a war without authority and that the United States troops in the Philippines are pirates.

Has a Democratic Tinge

Agoncillo was evidently in correspondence with the anti-imperialists. It will be remembered that he left Washington one night after advising the Filipinos to fire on the American soldiers. This was done and is responsible for the war now being waged. Agoncillo in a letter to Senors Apacible and Santos at Hongkong connects the democratic party with this traitorous correspondence, and advises his compatriots to prolong the war as long as possible, adding that he is fomenting the actions of the democratic party in the United States, which advocates Filipino independence. Agoncillo's representative adds that he is doing this in a way that seems most fitting to him.

Won't Make Him a Martyr

When this correspondence was made public those who read it expressed the greatest indignation. Levenson will be safe from harm so far as the administration is concerned, as it does not propose to make a martyr of him by inflicting punishment which is the just deserts of a traitor. Levenson admits that he wrote the letter and says that he is proud of it.

PILGRIMS CLIMB THE HOLY HILL

People from Chicago and Milwaukee Pay Honor to the Virgin Mary at Hartford, Wis.

Hartford, Wis., Aug. 16—In spite of the rainy weather which prevailed throughout the day the excursion from Chicago and Milwaukee to Holy Hill yesterday was a large one. The observance was the annual feast of the assumption of the Virgin Mary, and the chapel on the summit of Holy Hill dedicated to that saint was crowded to its utmost limit, and vast throngs gathered about the open doors and windows to listen to the ceremonies which commemorated the bodily assumption of the Virgin into heaven.

There were the usual solemn rites preceded by the stations of the cross, which were said by the devotees at the little stations as they ascended the steep incline. The way is worn smooth from the innumerable feet which have toiled to the summit in order to receive the reward of cure for bodily ills or mental distress. There were thousands of pilgrims who made the ascent during the last few days, for many came early in the week to prepare for the solemn event.

The next excursion will be on Sept. 8, when the Feast of Nativity will be celebrated. This is usually the largest gathering of the year.

OLD FIRE CHIEF PASSES AWAY

Henry Lippert Dies Suddenly at His Home in Milwaukee

Milwaukee, August 16—Henry Lippert, who was chief of the Milwaukee fire department at the time of the Newhall House fire, died suddenly at his home last evening. Mr. Lippert was chief of the department for ten years and was succeeded by Chief Foley.

It is an odd coincidence that but a few minutes before Mr. Lippert was talking with a friend about some acquaintance who had dropped dead suddenly and he made the remark that that was the way he wished to go. He wanted to go quick and not have any long illness. In ten minutes after making this remark he was dead.

CORN POPPED BY THE SUN

Georgia Farmer Exhibits Evidence of the Recent Hot Weather.

Dawson, Ga., August 16—The hottest weather ever experienced here has made the people of this section uncomfortable for the last several days. Last week the thermometer reached a fraction of over 100 degrees. As an evidence of the heat W. T. Everett, one of Terrell county's most prosperous farmers, had on exhibition here yesterday an ear of popcorn, whose kernels were snow white, the corn being popped as nicely as if it had been done over a fire, and this was done by the heat of the sun, the corn having been exposed to old Sol's rays for several hours.

GERMANS FEAR SILVER PLANK

They Will Vote the Republican Ticket on That Account.

DEMOCRATS LOSE HOPE

Indications of a Republican Landslide in the Middle and Far West.

MCKINLEY WILL KEEP QUIET

Washington, D. C., August 16—Although the national campaign has not begun in earnest, great interest is manifested in the reports which indicate what the result will be. This is particularly true since it has been announced that President McKinley during his present stay in Washington will have a conference with Chairman Hanna of the national committee in regard to the campaign. The president will not do any campaigning in the general acceptance of the word.

Republicans Feel Cheerful

The outlook in all its phases is discussed at the republican and democratic headquarters, and while the democrats are not ready to admit that things are looking a little blue for them, it must be said that they are not nearly so confident of success as they were several weeks ago.

At the republican headquarters, however, a much more cheerful feeling prevails than did some time ago, and the correspondence which is received every day is responsible for this sanguine feeling.

One thing which offers encouragement to the republicans and a corresponding discouragement to the democrats is the fact that the latter have not been able to make much of an impression upon the German population of the country with the cry of militarism. A short time ago it was feared that a large number of Germans would be driven from the republican party by arguments used by the democrats. To offset this, however, the republican speakers have carried on a campaign of education.

Germans are For McKinley.

They gave the Germans the statistics regarding the military arm of the United States and compared it with that of Germany. They showed them what a small army maintains in time of peace and how insignificant is its military force even on a war basis, when compared with Germany. This campaign of education will be continued, and the republicans are confident the Germans will cast their vote with the republicans on account of the silver plank in the democratic platform, which frightens them more than the cry of militarism.

Indications are that in the far west there will be a landslide for the republican ticket, and while in the middle west there will be a contest. More of the republicans are hopeful that Mr. Bryan's own state will be found in the republican column on election day. Yesterday a letter was received from Delegate Flynn of Oklahoma in which he paints a glowing picture of his part of the country and the bright outlook for republican success.

Kansas Sure Republican

"You can bet every dollar you have," said Mr. Flynn, "that McKinley will carry Kansas, just as certain as he will carry any state in the union. Local pride probably will give Nebraska to Bryan by a scratch. South Dakota, Wyoming, Oregon, and Washington have all wished the Kansas City platform and its nominees good-bye. McKinley and Roosevelt are so far ahead in the race that the distance flag will be dropped before the democratic nominees realize it has begun."

"The people of the west are for expansion. Nobody fears the cry of imperialism. McKinley is the strongest man who has occupied a seat in the White House since Lincoln."

FOUND LIBRARY OF GREAT TEMPLE

Historical and Literary Tablets Discovered by Explorers on the Site of Nippur.

London, Aug. 16—The mail advices to the Daily News from Constantinople, dated Aug. 8, announce the arrival there of Professor H. V. Hellprecht, head of the University of Pennsylvania expedition to Nippur.

The party discovered the library of the Great Temple, with over 17,000 tablets dealing with historical and literary matters, not one of them of later date than 2280 B. C.

"The unexplored remains of the library" says the correspondent, "will require five years for excavation. There is no example in the world's history, not even in Egypt, of so complete a recovery of the records of an ancient civilization."

Mrs. Susan E. Smith and Mrs. Margaret Felber, are spending two weeks at Benton's harbor and St. Joe, Mich.

WRECKED CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL ENGINE

(Photograph Showing Where Schlater and Abendroth Met Their Death)

The above picture shows the wrecked engine that cost the lives of Engineer Schlater and Fireman Abendroth, as it appeared while the railroad employees were clearing it up. The coal cars that the passenger train ran into had been removed, and the switch engine was assisting in the work of clearing up the wreck.

The damage done to the passenger engine is clearly shown. It will be noticed that the cab was totally destroyed and the tender is pushed up against the boiler head. It was between the tender and the boiler head that Schlater and Abendroth were pinned while the clouds of steam from the wrecked engine did their fatal work. The baggage car was forced up on the tender trucks, the whole tender superstructure being pushed forward.

This picture was taken some time after the accident, the bodies of the men having been removed before the photographer got there. The wrecking crew was engaged in clearing things up, and fastening the wrecked cars and engine together so that the whole outfit could be hauled back to the depot by the big C. & N. W. switch engine.

ADVICE IS GIVEN BY EDITOR LIBBEY

Minister's Sermon Furnishes a Text
For the Newspaper Man's Discourse.

Evansville Enterprise—We should judge from Rev. Short's sermon, Sunday, that he saw and became acquainted with some things and people that ministers seldom do, which may give him more charity for those who are trying to do right but who are not quite up to the christian standard that he thinks they ought to be. Unknown as a minister he associated with the lower classes who drink, gamble, never think of church or religion, and possibly never knew what a christian home is, and concluded that it was better to be a partisan in favor of christianity than such people, and we hope he will feel in the future that even partisans in favor of churches and christianity are a benefit and not a bad influence, although some who never attend church may point the finger of scorn at them as not being all that the church form calls for, remembering that they have to bear this censure among their outside friends as well as the church, which may be as heavy to some as the full fledged christian has to bear in his work, and may have never had the influence of a christian home to help them. Encouraging them in what they may be striving hard to do now and possibly in time they may come fully up to the standard you will have them, and not have them infer in any manner that you feel that they are a damage or hindrance to the church or its growth in their example which you admit is better than the real bad which they may have associated with and are trying to break away and keep away from.

BIOGRAPHY OF ROBERT M. LA FOLLETTE

Short Sketch of the Life of the Man Who Will Be the Next Governor of Wisconsin.

Robert Marion La Follette was born in a log cabin at Primrose, Dane county, Wisconsin, June 14, 1855, son of Josiah and Mary (Ferguson) La Follette. He comes of an old French Huguenot family, which settled in this country more than a century ago. His father died when Mr. La Follette was but an infant. His mother struggled through pioneer life with her little family and until nineteen years of age his time was divided between working on a farm and attending a district school. In 1873 the family removed to Madison and there he attended a private academy preparatory to entering the state university, which he did in 1875.

Won Highest Honors

As a college student he took an active part in the debating societies of the institution, and in literary work as editor and joint owner of The University Press. In his junior year he was elected by the Athenaeum society as its orator in the junior exhibition. In his senior year he won the university contest in oratory, thus becoming the representative of the state university in the state oratorical contest participated in by other colleges of the state. He won in the state contest and hence became the representative of Wisconsin in the interstate contest which followed, meeting contestants from six other states who had won in the preliminary contests in the respective states. The final contest was held at Iowa City, Ia., May 7, 1879, where Mr. La Follette was again successful over all contestants with an oration entitled "Ingo." The production was declared to be a literary masterpiece and to have been delivered in a faultless manner. He graduated in June, 1879, and then entered the law department of the university, but at the end of the first term passed his examination for admission to the bar, and in February, 1880, opened an office in the city of Madison.

As Congressman.

In the fall of that year he was nominated and elected district attorney of Dane county on the republican ticket. He was nominated and elected in spite of formidable opposition and the fact that the average plurality against his ticket was over 1,400. His winning personality and the reputation he had already gained in his profession caused him to be brought forward as a candidate for congress, and in 1884, in his twenty-ninth year, he was elected to represent the Third district, being the youngest man in the Forty-ninth congress. He was renominated three times by acclamation, and twice re-elected by majorities largely exceeding his party strength, but the introduction into politics of compulsory education issues in 1890 alienated many republican voters, and he failed of re-election in the general defeat.

National Reputation.

He has made numerous speeches in congress which commanded the attention of the country, and early gained for him a national reputation. He was perhaps the youngest man ever appointed on the committee of ways and means and there was considerable comment at the time of his appointment in December, 1899, in the first session of the Fifty-first congress. But Speaker Reed had selected him as a representative of the northwest, and as soon as the committee entered upon the arduous task of entire tariff revision, which resulted in the report to the house of the McKinley bill, and in the debate which followed, Mr. La Follette showed himself to be a profound student of economic questions. As a member of the committee he drafted the tariff schedules on farm products, tobacco, linen and silk, and he was a member of the sub-committee which framed the iron and steel schedules. When the bill was finally reported and the debate opened, the industrial workers throughout the country—the iron moulders of Pittsburgh, the factory hands of Lowell, as well as the farmers of Wisconsin—were placed under obligation to Mr. La Follette for his able and eloquent advocacy of their interests.

Debates and Speeches.

Of his final speech in support of the measure, Hon. Amos J. Cummings, himself a member of congress at that time, said in The New York Sun: "His was probably the most remarkable speech on the republican side of the house. He began with much confusion, but succeeded in gaining the attention of the house, and finally completely magnetized it." In a campaign speech at Madison during the campaign of 1890, Hon. Thomas H. Reed declared that the representative from the Third district of Wisconsin was conspicuous in the body of able men who framed the tariff bill. During his first term in congress Mr. La Follette was chosen to make the annual address to the Howard law school at Washington, to pronounce the oration at the Grant Memorial exercises held at the Monona Chautauqua assembly and to deliver a political address in Chickering hall, New York city. Mr. La Follette was a delegate to the republican national convention in St. Louis in 1896. He was appointed as the member from Wisconsin upon the committee on resolutions, and his influence was felt in perfecting the party platform. Mr. La Follette presented the name of H. Clay Evans of Tennessee for the office of vice president in the convention. The speech was short, was made without preparation, came at the close of an extended session which had wearied everybody, was a supreme test of his power as an orator.

His Public Services.

Brilliant as was Mr. La Follette's official career not the least important of his public services have been performed since he retired from public office. Though a poor man when he left congress and thereby obliged to give the greater part of his time and effort to the labors of his profession, in which he has been signally successful, he has, notwithstanding, found time to lead a reform movement in the politics of Wisconsin, which has not been without desired results to his home state, nor without influence beyond its borders. His address delivered at the Chicago university February 22, 1897, on the "Menace of the Machine," and under the auspices of the "Good Government club," delivered March 12, 1898, on the "Nomination of Candidates by Australian Ballot," and the address, "Dangers Threatening Representative Government," before the State Agricultural society in Milwaukee, September 23, 1898, together with speeches along similar lines throughout Wisconsin, aroused popular interest and enthusiasm, and inspired a following which, in 1896, and again in 1898, demanded that he should stand as a candidate for governor as the personification of the principles for which he had contended. He was defeated in convention both times by narrow majorities, only through the employment of the influences which the adoption of its principles would destroy, and only when his opponents confessed the accuracy of his demands by pledging the party to procure the reforms for which his campaigners were inaugurated. The party platform embodied the identical principles for which Mr. La Follette had so vigorously contended. The enemies natural to such contests, and the important personal sacrifices which they required, have never served to divert Mr. La Follette from his purpose to accomplish results, nor to impair public confidence in the integrity of that purpose. Some of the pledges are now in the form of Wisconsin statutes and public sentiment in support of more of them is unmistakable and increasing.

Declined Office.

Soon after his inauguration President McKinley offered Mr. La Follette the comptrollership of the treasury which he declined, preferring to continue in the practice of his profession and give such time to affairs of public interest as he could spare therefrom.

Mr. La Follette's life has been a singularly happy and genial one. The year he began the practice of his profession he was married to Miss Belle Case, who had been his classmate in the university and to whom upon graduation was awarded the Lewis prize for the best commencement oration. Besides her university course, Mrs. La Follette was graduated from the university law school, being the first woman to receive a diploma from that institution. The LaFollette home is on the shore of lake Monona. It is the house of a scholar, a student, a husband and wife of letters. Here and there and everywhere are books. LaFollette is an omnivorous reader. He knows Hamlet almost by heart. His family, consisting of one daughter and two little sons is a most happy and congenial one and every hour that the father is away is a sacrifice.

Such is the man who will be the next governor of Wisconsin.

Cleanest in America.

The Lackawanna Railroad is the cleanest railroad in America. Even though it cared little for the comfort of its passengers, which it does, it probably would burn hard coal, for the reason that it owns the most extensive anthracite coal mines in Pennsylvania, and it is cheaper for it to burn hard coal, which makes no smoke, than soft. At any rate, there is no smoke from its locomotives. It is built for the most part through the mountains where rock is the material easiest of access, and its road bed for that reason is rock ballasted. There is therefore, no dust. These two things are of unusual interest to the traveler by the line, for the reason that on no other road in the United States is there stronger incentive to keep one's eyes upon the passing scene. It is said of this line truthfully that every mile is picturesque. It traverses the agricultural region of Western New York, the mountain region of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and every mile offers a view that is beautiful, interesting and entrancing. In point of comfort its passengers are particularly fortunate, for, in addition to there being no smoke or dust, the cars are roomy and scrupulously clean. Sleeping cars, parlor cars and dining cars offer all the conveniences and comforts of modern travel.

C. P. HUNTINGTON'S LIFE

C. P. Huntington, the railway magnate who died suddenly on Tuesday, began his business career without money and without schooling. He commenced work for himself when 14 years of age and his first job paid him $7 a month. His wealth is now estimated at from $25,000,000 to $90,000,000. He was a tireless worker, and always saved some of his salary, no matter how small the amount. Like all other men, who have become rich single-handed, Huntington's hardest struggle was to save his first $1,000. After that success came at a less cost in the way of labor and privation. His motto was:

"Work at anything to get enough money with which to buy a meal. If you earn 3 cents only spend one of them, then see to it that you are never without money afterward."

A simple rule, surely, and one that will never fail. The man who spends but one third of his earnings will soon be independent. Few are willing, however, to pay this price. Rigid economy is not a popular rule with Americans. They want the best of everything and plenty of it, and the pinching process that gave Huntington his start in life is seldom called into play. Thrift is practiced by many, but Huntington was more than thrifty. For years he denied himself the very necessities of life, and in later years, although he possessed countless millions, the old habits still ruled. He could not accurately estimate his wealth at the time of his death, yet no greater happiness was his than was experienced when he earned but $7 a month. Thus two lessons are taught by Mr. Huntington's life. The first is that industry, economy and ability will always win wealth. The second is that contentment and happiness cannot be purchased. "Money makes the mare go," but it doesn't prolong her life or add to her happiness unless it is used judiciously with that end in view. Huntington did much for the country, but little for himself. He was a multimillionaire—and that is all.

Henry Watterson gives his estimate of Gov. Roosevelt thus: "Youthful, well-balanced, a gentleman, a cow-puncher, a man of letters, a man of action, a clear-headed politician, a dashing soldier, he has the respect of those to whom ability, both mental and physical, appeals, and he has the admiration of those whom accomplishment, whether in the field of politics, arms or literature, impresses."

Mr. La Follette's primary election law plan meets with ready favor all over the state. Legislation looking to the ends that Mr. La Follette seeks has long been needed, and the enactment of a law that will bring about such results will be an achievement to be proud of.

Despite the fact that there are very few candidates for the democratic gubernatorial nomination, Janesville Bryanites still neglect to take advantage of the opportunity to bring out The Hon. Cornelius Buckley of Beloit. What's the matter, fellows?

Lightning struck a brewery in Altoona, Pa., the other day, and soured all the beer. This would appear to offset the fact that a bolt recently wrecked La Crosse church.

The Beloit common council has ordered all screens removed from the front of saloons, and he who drinks in the Lino City, must do so in plain sight.

The Milwaukee Sentinel's "Century number" was the finest newspaper edition ever issued in Wisconsin, and a credit to all concerned.

Perhaps Bryan patronized a non-union printing office in recognition of the fact that nearly all the union men voted against him.

The Chinese have been Fitzsimmons sized again, but, Corbettlike, they bob up serenely again.

CLINTON FAIR WAS A SUCCESS

On Account of the Rain Some Features Were Postponed Until Tomorrow—News and Notes.

Clinton, Aug. 16.—On account of the rain until late in the afternoon Wednesday the prepared program for the street carnival had to be abandoned. A few visited the building during the morning. There the vegetable and fruit displays were on exhibition, which, by the way, did great credit to Clinton enterprise. Also the culinary and floral display attracted attention. In the afternoon the baby show was held, and when the rain ceased quite a crowd collected and the vaudeville water fight and pony races took place. At six o'clock the balloon ascension was made which was the finest ever made here, everything being favorable and working perfectly. It was decided to continue the carnival Friday afternoon when the street parade, fire works, etc., will take place. Great credit is due the merchants and business men for the public spirit exhibited and which also required the substantial for carrying on such a carnival.

The Clinton Telephone company, which is owned by residents of Clinton and vicinity, is now connected with Delavan, Elkhorn, Delavan Lake and other eastern points, so that communication with surrounding towns is now quite complete. People are inclined to patronize the home company in preference to the Bell company, with whom they tried to negotiate some time ago, but they then were quite indifferent about the matter. Now they are trying to do some hustling, but they are rather late, we fear.

An automobile used as a vehicle, advertising a patent medicine made in Buffalo, N. Y., attracted a great deal of attention on the street one day recently. Among the carnival visitors seen were J. C. Church, Mrs. W. H. Scott, Chicago; Mrs. Jas. Felton, Delavan; Mrs. F. C. Reizart, Beloit; Mrs. F. A. Reader, Janesville; Mr. Henry Tarrant, The Janesville Y. M. C. A. band added not a little to the pleasure of the day rendering some choice selections.

Mr. Orrie Isham of Chicago surprised his parents Saturday evening, only remaining over Sunday.

A new nephew and family of Milwaukee are spending a week or two with his aunt, Mrs. J. S. Hartshorn.

Willie Mayhew returned Monday from a very pleasant visit with cousins in Iowa.

Mrs. J. C. Barker is slowly recovering from her illness, but her mother, Mrs. S. Jones is quite sick.

Mrs. J. Milner is enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. C. L. Hanson is entertaining a friend from California. They were teachers together in Janesville at one time.

Mrs. L. Larson of Edgerton, stopped here on her way from the Delavan assembly to take in the carnival and visit with friends.

Mrs. Carrie VanVelzah and son of Chicago, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Woolston.

Mrs. J. S. Playter is visiting her daughters here.

The family of E. P. Babcock, C. G. Babcock, C. P. Drake, R. J. Helmer, L. Lantz, J. Soper, A. J. Wilkins, H. Foltz and B. Snyder are at home from Delavan Lake.

Rev. McChesney is away taking his vacation. Rev. William Moore will conduct reunion services during the time.

THE RESOURCES OF KANSAS

Interesting Little Booklet Issued By the Santa Fe Road.

The passenger department of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway company has issued a neat little booklet on Kansas and her resources. The matter contained was written by Mrs. F. D. Coburg, secretary Kansas State Board of Agriculture at the special request of Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, for publication in the Sheldon edition of the Topeka Capital, and are reprinted by special permission. The illustrations are from photographs secured from the Kansas State Board of Agriculture and other sources. It is an interesting little volume and can be obtained free of charge by dropping a postal to J. M. Connell, General Agent of the Santa Fe road, 109 Adams street, Chicago, Ill.

WANTED—At once 300 pounds of clean white rags, 3 cents pound. Gazette press rooms.

SAY THEY WILL ENDORSE BRYAN

Indianapolis, Aug. 16.—[Special Telegram]—The anti-imperialist congress resumed at ten o'clock this morning. The report of the committee on resolutions had the right of way. The committee was in session until three o'clock this morning on the question of endorsing Bryan. The majority won out and announced that while a draft of the platform had not been completed it would contain a specific endorsement of Bryan.

The nationalists are still at work and at sea. The naming of a third ticket is doubtful.

SHOOT RAPIDS IN OPEN BOAT

F. J. Bailey and Son and Rev. Mr. Kempton Return Home.

F. J. Bailey and son and Rev. A. C. Kempton are home from a pleasant ten days' trip down the Flambeau river, in the northern part of the state. They floated down the river in boats a distance of one hundred miles, and shot the rapids at twenty different points. Shooting the rapids in an open boat is quite an exciting experience. To a man not used to making the runs it seems almost impossible for a boat to live in the rushing, whirling waters, but after the first one has been passed, the following ones do not look nearly as dangerous, and are one of the most pleasant and exhilarating parts of the trip.

The fishing on the Flambeau river is good, the party catching all the bass and pike needed for the table, without any effort.

What Bryan Wanted.

Since Mr. Bryan began to tell the people four years ago that what they wanted was more money, they have added at the rate of $135,210,000 annually to the circulating medium.

Probable Cause.

The failure of the Democrats to denounce the annexation of Hawaii was doubtless due to the fact that the vote of Hawaii alone enabled them to revive the 16 to 1 corpse.

Won't Do This Year.

Four years ago the Democratic party favored an income tax. "This year" it didn't. There are too many Democratic millionaires now.

Disease Germs Beneath Paper.

The Paper-Hangers' union in Philadelphia has passed a resolution warning the public that health "is jeopardized by allowing old wall paper to be covered with new, thereby permitting all dirt and filth to accumulate and remain, and with it germs of disease." Some ugly testimony is presented in relation to the papering of rooms in which contagious diseases had occurred.

Laughing Plant.

A flower known as the laughing plant, which grows in Arabia, is so called because its seeds produce effects similar to those produced by laughing gas. The flowers are of a bright yellow, while the seeds resemble small black beans.

Small Coin Circulation.

The director of the mint states that there are $16,628,323 of 5 cent pieces and $9,952,892 of 1 cent pieces outstanding. This gives an idea of the enormous number of these little coins necessary to transact the business of the country. Since the coinage of these pieces began the total number that have been coined is: Of 5 cent pieces, $17,991,298; 1 cent bronze, $10,072,316.

Wants a Good Job.

Mr. Bryan is so opposed to McKinley becoming an emperor that he has been working for years to secure the scepter for himself. He has already proved himself to be a pretty good boss.

Bryan an Imperialist.

Boss Bryan objects to an imaginary national imperialism, but he is as firm a believer as ever in individual imperialism.

LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

PROTEST AGAINST
LANDING TROOPSBRITISH NOT WANTED BY VIC-
EROY OF SHANGHAI.Japan is Sending Troops to Korea—
French Minister Says the Pekin Legations Are Not Safe.—Worst of Road to Capital City is Now Passed
—Chaffee at Matow.

London, Aug. 16.—Transports with British troops arrived in Shanghai roadstead Tuesday. The viceroy protested to Admiral Seymour against the landing of the troops, and, according to a Shanghai cablegram dispatched at midnight, Admiral Seymour wired to his government for instructions as to how he should act.

The British residents at Shanghai are indignant and attribute the viceroys action to intrigue on the part of the French and Russian consuls.

Taotai Sheng's American adviser,
Mr. Fergusson, who has been criticised by the press and by Americans for his continued relations with the Chinese official, has resigned and his resignation has been accepted. An English correspondent sending this information to the Associated Press from Shanghai says:

"The intimacy of American officials
with Sheng has been remarked by Englishmen."

It is reported from Hongkong under date of Aug. 14, that the United States sea-going monitor Monterey will go to Canton in a few days to relieve the American cruiser Don Juan de Austria.
The Chinese aver that the Bogue forts will fire on the monitor, as the authorities are suspicious of foreign designs.

The activity of the Chinese military authorities at Canton is most pronounced. Foreigners there think they perceive preparations for action of some sort. They dislike the presence of Chinese troops in the vicinity of the foreign settlement, fear that the slightest indiscretion will lead to bloodshed, and would welcome the arrival of the Monterey.

The absence of fresh news of what the Pekin expedition is doing leads to speculation. Military men at Shanghai, who know the country in the vicinity of Pekin, believe the allies ought to be within cannon shot of the Chinese capital today.

A news agency dispatch from Shanghai says: "An authentic message from Pekin, dated Aug. 7, says the attacks on the legations have been renewed, and that the supplies of food have been stopped. The advance of the allies, it is feared, has excited the fanatics, and the rebels are again uncontrollable."

Japanese Troops for Korea.

Kobe, Aug. 16.—Japan is sending troops to Korea in anticipation of Russia's plans to obtain a footing in that country. The 16th regiment of infantry is under orders to proceed to the neighborhood of Chemulpo and will sail at once.

THE LEGATIONS NOT SAFE.

French Minister Says Arrival of Army Is Their Only Salvation.

Paris, Aug. 16.—The French foreign office has received the following dispatch from the minister of France
at Pekin, M. Pichon, dated Aug. 9:

"We have been advised that Li Hung Chang is charged to negotiate telegraphically with the powers. We are ignorant of the events occurring outside the legation. It is surrounded by hostile defenses. How could we negotiate without the diplomatic corps regaining its rights and the legation grounds being evacuated? If the negotiations prevent the march of the allied troops, which is our only salvation, we risk falling into Chinese hands. The section wherein lies the French legation is occupied by imperial troops, who have not entirely ceased to fire. We are reduced to siege rations. We have provisions, horses, rice and bread for fifteen days."

WORST OF ROAD IS PASSED.

Tartars Charged and Slaughtered by Bengal Lancers.

London, Aug. 16.—Rear Admiral Bruce, telegraphing from Taku to the British admiralty, says:

"Have received the following from the general at Ho-Si-Wu, Aug. 10:
"The troops are distant about twenty-seven miles from Pekin. They experienced little opposition. A position had been prepared by the enemy, but, as the allies advanced, they fled.
The Tartar cavalry was charged by two squadrons of Bengal lancers.
Many of the former were killed. The standards of Generals Ma and Sung were captured. The troops are much exhausted by the heat, but their health and spirits are otherwise excellent."

"A second dispatch dated Ho-Si-Hu,
Aug. 11, says:

"The advance may be somewhat delayed, as rain is falling."

CHAFFEE IS AT MATOW.

General Says the Opposition is Slight,
but Heat Terrible.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The bureau of navigation has made public the following dispatch.

"Tientsin, Aug. 12.—Just received an undated dispatch from Chaffee, Ma-tow, yesterday opposition of no consequence, yet terrible heat; many men prostrate. Please inform secretary of war.

"REMEY."
Matow is about eleven or twelve miles beyond Ho-Si-Wu. The road between Ho-Si-Wu and Matow is indicated on the War Department map

DISASTROUS STORM AT NOME.
Fifteen Persons Perish and Much Shipping Is Destroyed.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 16.—The steamship Centennial arrived from Nome with the wreck of the wreck of the steamers Merwin, Resolute and Dollar on the beach during the fierce storms of Aug. 2 and 3. The Merwin dragged anchor and is a total loss. One boat containing five persons was overturned and all were drowned. Fifteen were drowned in all, the identified being the following: Lizzie French, George Vincent, New York; George Fitzhugh, Seattle; Verne Phillips, Seattle; Jeansen, Tacoma. Ten are unknown.

The total damage to shipping is estimated at $300,000. General Randall has received instructions to afford transportation to over 5,000 destitute
and indigent sick at Nome.

Town Captain Killed.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 16.—A cablegram was received at the war department saying that Captain William L. Murphy, 39th United States volunteer infantry (first lieutenant 24th United States infantry) was killed near Tanager Tuesday.

Murphy was born in Iowa and was appointed from that state to the military academy. He was made a second lieutenant of the 24th infantry April 26, 1898, and a first lieutenant in the same regiment March 2, 1899; was appointed captain in the 39th United States volunteer infantry Aug. 17, 1899, and was with his regiment in the Philippines.

During the Spanish-American war
Captain Murphy served with his regiment in the Santiago campaign and was recommended for bravery at the battle of San Juan.

Washington Republican Ticket.
Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 16.—The Republican state convention met and nominated a full ticket as follows:

Congressman, W. L. Jones, Yakima;
F. W. Cushman, Pierce; governor, J.
M. Frink, King; lieutenant governor, H. G. McBride, Skagit; secretary of state, S. H. Nichols, Snohomish; treasurer, C. W. Maynard, Lewis; auditor, B. D. Atkinson, Chelan; attorney general, W. B. Stratton, Pacific; land commissioner, Samuel A. Calvert, What-com; superintendent of public instruction, R. B. Bryan, Chehalis; judges of the supreme court, Wallace Mount, Spokane; R. O. Dunbar, Thurston. The platform adopted warmly indorses the administration of President McKinley and declares for the gold standard.

They Learn the Use of Smudges.
A curious bit of adaptation to circumstances may be seen in summer
among the cattle of the swamp lands along the Mississippi. From July to mid-September blood-sucking insects—mosquitoes, flies, gnats, and so on,
are so bad there cattle are sometimes in danger of their lives. So are people, unless they make smudges—that is, a sally, fires so thickly smothered
they fill the air with clouds of smoke and thus drive away the pests. The cattle soon learn the use and value of the smudges.—New York Sun.

Clara Kopp Wrote for Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Tells what it did for Her.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have seen so many letters from ladies who were cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies that I thought I would ask your advice
in regard to my condition.

I have been doctoring for four years and have taken different patent medicines, but received very little benefit. I am troubled with backache, in fact my whole body aches,
stomach feels sore,
by spells get short
of breath and am very nervous. Menstruation is very irregular with severe
bearing down pains,
cramps and backache. I hope to hear from you at once."

CLARA KOPP, Rockport,
Ind., Sept. 27, 1898.

"I think it is my duty to write a letter to you in regard to what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I wrote you some time ago, describing my symptoms and asking your advice, which you very kindly gave. I am now healthy and cannot begin to praise your remedy enough.
I would say to all suffering women,
"Take Mrs. Pinkham's advice, for a woman best understands a woman's sufferings, and Mrs. Pinkham, from her vast experience in treating female ills, can give you advice that you can get from no other source."

RACES IN A FIERCE RIOT.

Wild Excitement in New York
City Street.

SCORES OF NEGROES INJURED.

Rioting the Outgrowth of the Murder
of a West Side Policeman Last Sunday—Fighting Over a Large District—Police Reserves Called Upon.

New York, Aug. 16.—Negroes and men in a fierce racial riot seethed through the streets of the center of New York. The center of the maintaining war was Eighth avenue and Thirty-fourth street, but the conflict radiated in all directions from this junction and pitched battles were on every corner for blocks.

Scores of Negroes Injured.
Staggering mobs gave chase to solitary negroes, pulled them from doorways, cable cars and other refuges, beat them into insensibility in most cases, and in at least one instance attempted a lynching. That the victim is alive is due to the fact that there was no good place to fasten the rope.
Sixty or perhaps a hundred negroes were injured more or less severely, a dozen white men were battered up, and Detective Kennedy was carried up by a razor-wielding negro and is now in the New York hospital dangerously wounded, and two other policemen were injured. For many hours the police reserves from four stations were charging upon the rioters, and police patrol wagons and ambulances lined the thoroughfares where the thickest of the fight was on. This force became inadequate, and before midnight Chief Devery at the head of hundreds of reserves struggled to secure control of the turbulent and increasing mob.

Partial List of the Injured.
Here is a partial list of the injured:
Policeman John Kennedy, stab wound
in left side, Bellevue hospital; Lloyd W. Lee, colored, two pistol shot wounds, lacerated wounds about head, face and body, Bellevue; James H. Cook, colored, scalp wound, Bellevue; Richard Williams, colored, lacerated wounds, face, Bellevue; Albert Sanders, colored, scalp wound, Bellevue; William Devan, colored, lacerated wounds, Bellevue; George White, colored, hip wound, Bellevue; Alfred Ek-
ins, colored, scalp wound, Bellevue; Jesse Paine, colored, scalp wound,
Bellevue; Chester Smith, colored, scalp wound, Bellevue; Henry Ridd, colored, scalp wound, Bellevue; James J.
Lockett, colored, scalp wound, Bellevue; William Nash, colored, scalp wound, Bellevue.

Reserves Called Out.
All of the saloons in the vicinity were closed by the police and the half-intoxicated men were turned into the street to become a part of the mobs that were hunting black men.
The trouble spread from 33d street to 44th street and from 9th avenue to 6th avenue, and before the disturbance had been quelled reserves had been called out from every station between Charles street and 125th street. Policeman Thorpe was murdered last Sunday morning while attempting to arrest a woman. His slayer was a colored man, and since then the police have been making a search of the negro district for the murderer. This excited the negroes to the point of panic, and for two or three days
there have been mild disturbances.
The wake was held at the home of Policeman Thorpe Wednesday evening.
Two white women were passing and one said: "There's where they are,
holding the wake for the policeman
who was killed by a 'nigger'."

Resents a Woman's Remark.
A negro overheard the remark and drew a revolver and started apparently to shoot at the women, but he was disarmed. The riot, however, had been started, and from that hour till long after midnight the war was carried on through the avenues of the city and into the hotels. Cars in Broadway and 8th avenue were stopped by the mob and terror-stricken negroes were dragged to the street to be beaten and kicked by the angry whites. All the weapons of a mob were employed on both sides—pistols, razors, clubs, bottles and stones were freely used.

Late at night an Eighth avenue car passed up the avenue. On it were several negroes. The mob dragged the negroes off. The negroes had no chance when they reached the street.
Every white man in the crowd tried to get at a black man. By liberal use of the club the mob was scattered and quiet was restored. Up to 1 o'clock seventeen arrests had been made.

ARMISTICE AGREED UPON IN CHINA

The chances are about even under the circumstances."

May Be at Pekin
"We are most anxious," said a cabinet official. "We are now approaching or may have reached the point where that which we have sought to do may have failed or have proved successful. Every day, every hour now means victory or defeat to the plans of the powers. We know no more than does the unofficial citizen as to what has taken place during the last twenty-four hours."

All the officials of the state, war and navy departments are under the impression that the allies reached Pekin some time during Monday, perhaps during the night.

Key to the Capital.

Tung Chow is about ten miles from Matow. This is the city that is in reality East Pekin, for it lies but eight miles away from that place. It is the key to the capital and is the location of various minor offices of the government.

Therefore if hard rains, or perhaps the enemy did not prevent, Tung Chow must have been reached on the 12th, which was Sunday, and Pekin should have been sighted easily by Monday, unless the Chinese made a final stand at Tung Chow. It is a walled city and has many strong defenses.

Prediction of Battle.

Admiral Remey's assertion that Chaffee said the opposition was very slight the nearer the army approached Pekin is cheerful news, but this would not mean that Tung Chow was not defended by the Chinese. Indeed, there is a feeling that a battle has taken or will take place there.

BANKER WOULD CRUSH BRYANISM

Statement Made By George W. Burton
At the Bankers' Meeting in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 15.—The Wisconsin Bankers' association held its first session yesterday. There were about 100 bankers in attendance. F. W. Hayes of Detroit read a paper on "Clearing House Rules, Objects and Regulations." A subject informally discussed was that of the express companies and the banking business. The express companies are selling money orders and are transferring money by order and do not use revenue stamps, while the bankers are compelled to have all their checks bear a revenue stamp. In the afternoon George W. Burton spoke on "Further Financial Legislation." He declared in the course of his remarks that Bryanism ought to be crushed out of existence. The convention closed last evening with a banquet. The following officers were elected: President—H. D. Smith, Appleton. Vice-President—John Johnston, Milwaukee. Secretary—Charles C. Arnold, Milwaukee. Treasurer—George H. Utz, Menasha. Executive Council—William Bigelow, Milwaukee; John F. Murphy, Milwaukee; L. S. Tainton, Menomonee.

Suffered Extremes of Weather
Robert Johnson, a street news vendor, died in Washington as the result of prostration during the recent hot spell. Two years ago he was terribly frostbitten in the same city and it became necessary to amputate both his feet. The operation was performed in the same hospital where he died.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

There Is Work Ahead to Hold the Fifty-seventh House.

The chairman of the Republican congressional committee, the Hon. Joseph W. Babcock of Wisconsin, underestimates neither the importance nor the difficulty of securing an adequate Republican majority in the next house of representatives, says the New York Sun.

That is the proper attitude for a campaign executive who has ahead of him such a job as now engages Mr. Babcock's interest and energies.

The margin of control in the present congress is none too large for comfort. The capture of the fifty-seventh house by the party of Bryan and Aguinaldo would be a national misfortune only second to the defeat of McKinley and Roosevelt.

The Democrats possess a great advantage in the positive assurance in advance of a solid block of 120 representatives from the southern states. To secure a majority in the next house they will have to elect only 59 additional members, and to acquire these 59 members it is not necessary to carry a single northern state for the presidential ticket. New York, for example, might go for McKinley by a large majority and yet send 17 or more Democrats to the house, and so on throughout the north.

In the absence of a third presidential ticket, it is likely that those enemies of the administration who style themselves anti-imperialists will concentrate their efforts upon the close congressional districts throughout the country. That is to say, they will throw their votes and whatever influence they can exert in a close district in favor of Democratic candidates without regard to the financial question. They will pretend that the first duty is to save the republic from "imperialism, militarism and destruction."

With or without this factor there is a hard fight ahead in every close district in the country. Republicans who do not want the Republican schism-crisis to be broken, tempted of embarrassed in 1902 and 1903 by a hostile majority in the house of representatives and business men who do not desire to see the tide of Bryanism rise in any branch of the government had better not take too much for granted. Mr. Babcock is right. Republicans should be up and doing in every congressional district; not hopelessly Democratic.

OCTOPUS AND LONE STAR.

The Monopolistic Leviathan Needs Squelching in Texas.

Colonel Bryan is writing his notification speech with a silver pen and blood red ink while insatiable greed is raging in Texas, where he has often ridden his hobby and his ostrich, says the New York Sun. In spite of his visits and his labors and in spite of the virtuous and terrible antitrust act of Texas, the spirit of commercialism and monopoly rages there. The octopus has hitched himself to the Lone Star. The Texas wool growers have conferred and conspired. They have agreed to hold the whole wool clip for higher prices. It is said that 4,000,000 pounds of wool are thus kept out of the market, to the detriment of the manufacturer and the consumer.

As the Democratic party is pledged to "unceasing warfare" against monopoly, this exhibition of the monopolistic lust of gain in a Democratic state is inexpressibly sad. If Colonel Bryan is too busy, where is the Hon. James Stephen Hogg, and where is the Hon. Cyclone Davis? Are the trusts to be allowed to smite the producing classes in the head and in the feet, putting up the price of woolen stockings and woolen hats? In the cold winters that may be looked for in a gold standard empire, must the people shiver because a band of Texas plutocrats has raised the price of overcoats and mittens?

No. The situation is too grave to be left to Hogg and Cyclone. Colonel Bryan should come out of his library. This Texas Leviathan must be harpooned and finched.

Twins Trusts.

The alliance of Bryanism and Tammany Hall has given birth to twin trusts.

Mr. Bryan stands for the free and unlimited coinage of silver and is therefore the sponsor for the great silver trust, which would unload all its product upon the government.

Mr. Croker, head of Tammany Hall, is the shield for the ice trust, a squeeze that is about the meanest that could be devised.

With such a pair of troublesome twins on its hands, old Dame Democracy cannot look forward to a very pleasant summer.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

On the Programme.

The Democratic party is no longer drawing inspiration from the memories of Jefferson and Jackson. These names are not to be appealed to in conducting an antiexpansion campaign.
